

DON'T FALL FOR SCAMMERS PRETENDING TO BE CON EDISON.

Don't become a victim.
In one of the most common scams, a caller may:

Pretend to be from Con Edison. (Your Caller ID may even display Con Edison's name.)

Threaten to turn off power or natural gas service to your home or business within an hour.

Demand immediate payment – often by prepaid debit card.

Suspect a scammer? Here's what to do:

1. Hang up.
2. Call the police or 1-800-75-CONED (26633).

And remember, if someone knocks on your door saying they are from Con Edison, call us for verification.
